

Each bar has a DIFFERENT denominator drawn from a DIFFERENT, indication-selected group of children.
These are not sensitivities and must not be compared with one another as if they were.

